EUROPE HELD IN THROES OF WANT, MISERY

Desperate Plight is Not Half Told Declares Wemmer

SEES MENACE OF BALKANS

Lima Man Tells What he Saw
During 40 Days Tour

Germany and in fact all of Europe is in a far worse economic and mental condition than the wildest reports which have reached this country would indicate, according to Henry Wemmer of the Deisel-Wemmer Co., who returned yesterday from a 40-day tour of Europe.

"Nothing that has been written about conditions in Europe and particularly Germany has adequately portrayed the hopelessness and the suffering that is going on there," he said. "Minions will die this winter from cold and hunger and nothing can save them."

TOWN HELD AT BAY BY BANDITS

Protection of Guard

SAFE BLOWN, MONEY TAKEN

Soldiers Arrive on Scene After Gangsters Escape

"The people of Europe, even in England, are blaming Lloyd George or much of the condition which has arisen since the war," said Wemmer.
They say that Lloyd George, being Welshman and a politician, did not see England's traditional suspicion of France and so he helped to place the hands of France greater power in French statesmen have had the duty to use right. Lloyd George lays his mistake and is trying to correct it but I am afraid that it is too late."

During his talk with the Lima News representative, Wemmer emphasized the fact that Germany should be punished and humiliated starting the World War. "But they have gone too far," he said.
"These Germans are so utterly cless, so completely desperate they are ready to try anything to save themselves. Morning after morning I have seen people get up to face the sun sing the fact that they were living
The result is that the number suicides is tremendous."

From an observation of nine days France, Wemmer says that in his view the rank and file of the people are not entirely in synchrony with the attitude of Poincaré.
Germany and France have both made tremendous mistakes," he said.
many is getting today what France in 1871 but that does not help situation. The Germans made mistake of passive resistance in Ruhr and France is making the same mistake of running Germany and a Balkanized Germany in section of Europe which will,
I react dangerously on all of Europe."

INCH SEIZED MONEY

Wemmer says one of the factors in the depreciation of the French currency was the fact that the French seized the money and scattered it abroad, thus making it easy for the Germans to get it, and then Germany made the mistake of printing more money to meet the shortage until the money is worth less than it was."

When I first entered Germany
I got about 40,000 marks my dollar and when I left the dollar was worth seven hundred million marks," he said. "It is surprising the amount of American money that is being brought into Germany."

Observations lead Wemmer to the conclusion that England has had more in financial cost than other country in the great war, says England is holding aloof use of the tremendous economic power which she faces. "One thing noticed was that people in England at railway stations passed out bills to Americans to let them that all the people are not as as some would have America to be. He said that England is closer cooperation with this country.

Italy is slowly coming back, Wemmer said, while Italy is doing well and the Turk got everything he wanted. "Europe was to drive the Turk back into Asia Turk is in Europe today, and more solidified than it was."

Reviewing the general situation in Europe Wemmer says there is safety there except that which is manifested by foreigners of all kinds. This is particularly true in any, he said, where the bitterness and despair of the people are revealed in their faces.

MANAGER'S SALARY TO BE CUT POLICE-FIRE FUNDS DEPLETED

REDUCTION BY HALF IS PROBABLE

Jones Favors Slash to Meet Bad
Financial Condition

RANKIN AND MOYER PLEDGED

Occupational Tax May be Revived After January 1

Definite assurance was given Thursday that a fight will be made to reduce the salary of the next city manager. This is known to be the attitude of the two men elected city commissioners last Tuesday and coincides with the views of at least one of the hold-overs, assuring the reduction.

J. J. Rankin and Earl C.
Moyer, along with their pledge of economy, favored a cut in the manager's salary prior to the election. They have announced that they will stand by their pledges since their election, which will make two votes for the slice.

Commissioner Ellis Jones Thursday declared that he favored a cut in the salary since it will be necessary to reduce all operating expenses. In this it is expected that the other two hold-over commissioners will concur.

MAY BE ONLY HALF

It is believed certain that the salary will not exceed $6,000 a year after a new manager is employed. It may be a lower figure, possibly not more than half the amount paid the present incumbent.

A police report states Lucas was driving a truck west on Elm-st and Metcalfe-st. At the intersection of the two streets the vehicles collided.
The truck ploughed into a telephone pole.

Door, fender and radiator were broken on the Ford. Front wheels and front fenders on the truck were broken. Mrs. Warnock, who was riding with Bert, was taken to a doctor's office and then to her home.

COOLIDGE ASKED TO BAN BOOZE

Commissioner Jones said he had not considered the matter of a new manager and that he would not take hand in this respect until the new commissioners have taken the initiative, as they are certain to do.

TAX IS DISCUSSED

There was talk Thursday of a revival of the occupational tax, which was considered here at one time and dropped as a bad proposition. It has been adopted in other cities when all other means of raising money had been exhausted and probably will be brought out here soon after the reorganization of the commission.

If the occupational tax is adopted as a relief measure it will add greatly to the burden of the administration. It would be certain to meet with much opposition from the public.

WALTON ON TRIAL

Loses Fight to Stop Impeach-

OKLAHOMA CITY — (United Press) — J. C. Walton, suspended governor of Oklahoma, went on trial before the court of impeachment here today.

An eleventh hour attempt of the executive to stave off impeachment by the tribunal was defeated yesterday at Lawton where Federal Judge John Cottrell denied Walton's petition for federal interference in the state political wrangle.

Cottrell ruled the government's "hands off" policy upon the ground
"there was no federal question involved."

The senate convened to clear away preliminaries for the trial at 10 o'clock today and resolved it self into a court of impeachment to meet at 1:30 p. m.

Appeal Against Bootlegging
Made by Disabled Veterans

WASHINGTON — (Associated

appealed to today to stop bootlegging in the vicinity of veterans' hospitals.

McCarthy Chapter number three, Disabled American Veterans, all the members of which are patients at hospital number 37 at Waukesha, Wis., in a resolution forwarded here, protested to Mr. Coolidge as well as to all others having to do with law enforcement against conditions which were described as "unbearable and deplorable."

"We feel," said the resolution,
"that it was not the intention of the American people when they adopted the eighteenth amendment and established the pits all over the United States for rehabilitation, that a certain class of citizens or residents at least, should ply their trade by selling poisonous moonshine, home brew and various other dope to a certain class of patients of the above mentioned hospital's who on account of the nature of their disabilities are unable to resist temptation."

Desperate Plight is Not Half Told Declares Wemmer

Lima Man Tells What he Saw During 40 Days Tour.

Germany and in fact all of Europe is in a far worse economic and mental condition than the wildest reports which have reached this country would indicate, according to Henry Wemmer of the Deisegel-Wemmer Co., who returned Tuesday from a 40-day tour of Europe.

"Nothing that has been written about conditions in Europe and particularly Germany has adequately portrayed the hopelessness and the suffering that is going on there," he said. "Millions will die this winter from cold and hunger and nothing can save them."

Germany, he said is not only hopeless but so desperate that she is ready "to try anything once" and this tends to enhance the chances of a Balkanized Germany.

"This would mean a greater menace to European civilization than now exists," Wemmer said. "The Balkan states have kept Europe a flame for years and now to Balkanize Germany will just double the menace."

BLAME LLOYD GEORGE

"The people of Europe, even in England, are blaming Lloyd George for much of the condition which has arisen since the war," said Wemmer. "They say the Lloyd George, a Welshman and a politician, did not have England's traditional suspicion of France and so he helped to place in the hands of France greater power than French statesmen ever had and the wisdom to the right. Lloyd George today sees his mistake and is trying to correct it, but I am afraid that it is too late."

During his talk with the Lima News representative, Wemmer emphasized the fact that he felt Germany should have been punished and humiliated for starting the World War. "But things have gone to far," he said. "Today the Germans are so utterly hopeless, so completely desperate that they are ready to try anything else. Morning after morning I have seen people get up to face the sun, the fact that they were living. The result is that the number of suicides is tremendous."

From an observation of nine days in France, Wemmer says that in his opinion the rank and file of the French people are not entirely in sympathy with the attitude of Poincaré and France has both made tremendous mistakes," he said. "Germany is getting today what France got in 1917 but that does not help the situation."

The German made the mistake of passive resistance in Europe and France is making the mistake of running Germany and creating a Balkanized condition in that section of Europe which will, I fear, react dangerously on all of Europe."

FRENCH SEIZED MONEY

Wemmer says one of the factors in Germany's currency depreciation was the fact that the French seized the German money and scattered it abroad, thus making it easy for people to get it and then Germany made the mistake of printing more money to meet the shortage until the money is worth less than nothing.

"When I first entered Germany I could get about 40,000,000 marks for my dollar and when I left the second time the dollar was worth several hundred million marks," he said. "It is surprising the amount of American paper money that is being circulated in Germany."

His observations lead Wemmer to believe, he said, that England has suffered more in financial cost than any other country in the great war. "England is holding aloof because of the tremendous economic strain which she faces. One thing I noticed was that people in England at railway stations passed me, thinking to Americans to let them know that all the people are not as bad as some would have Americans believe. He said that England wants closer cooperation with this country."

England is slowly coming back, Wemmer said, while Italy is doing fairly well and the Turk not even what he wanted. "Europe was going to drive the Turk back into Asia but the Turk is in Europe today stronger and more solidified than ever before," he said.

TAX BILL BEATEN BY 491,952

Majority Vote Rolled up Against the Albaugh Measure

COMPLETE RETURNS ARE IN

Compensation Amendment Wins by 67,787

COLUMBUS — (United Press) — Complete unofficial returns of Tuesday's election, tabulated by the secretary of state, failed to change the outcome on any of the six statewide proposals, except to increase the pluralities for the workmen's compensation and the "white male" amendments, to increase the majorities against the other proposals. The complete unofficial returns are:

Workmen's compensation — For 551,907; against 514,120. "White male" amendment: For 529,498; against 432,389.

Publication amendment: For 552,192; against 438,453.

Taft act — For 360,134; against 639,156.

Albaugh act — For 234,288; against 726,240.

Old age pension — For 387,927; against 755,179.

Assertion by Governor Donahay that he does not propose to call a special session of the legislature to consider further taxation legislation to aid cities now financially embarrassed, makes it improbable that there will be any more tax tinkering before the 1925 general assembly.

The landslide against the Taft and Albaugh acts, voted down by 339,322 and 492,012 pluralities, respectively, is such repudiation of the present Republican legislature's tax law efforts that there will hardly be any disposition on the part of legislative leaders to risk further votes from Donahay and rebuffs from the people, by returning in session of their own accord.

"I want to come back." Somewhere in Lima someone with the initials "D. G." is waiting for an answer to that appeal written on a postal card and mailed at the local postoffice Oct. 24.

But there will be no answer because the writer of the card forgot to give all the address.

Maybe it is some wife that would return, maybe it is some sweetheart who would patch up a lover's quarrel—who knows? But the man to whom the appeal is addressed knows it not for the card is in the little case for wrongly addressed letters and postal cards which hangs in the lobby of the postoffice.

BUREAU PROBE TO BE BROADENED

Inquiry in Veterans' Board Blocked, Committee Charges

RECORDS REFUSED, IS CLAIM

Access Taken by Investigators Until Next Week

WASHINGTON — (Associated Press) — The scope of the Senate inquiry into the veterans' bureau probably will be broadened as a result of statements made to the investigating committee late yesterday by its counsel that certain employes of the bureau have sought in every way to hinder the work of obtaining records and papers for the prosecution of the inquiry.

R. C. Routsong, in charge of the statistical division who was assigned by Director Frank C. Hines to assist committee counsel, was named as one of the employes and the committee asked that it be furnished a list of the others. Specifically, Routsong was charged with withholding papers relating to payments to Mathew O'Brien, a San Francisco architect, for unused plans for a hospital at Livermore, Calif.

HELP AS IMPORTANT
One letter showed that O'Brien had presented a claim for only $13,000 in addition to the $64,000 paid him for the original plans and committee indicated that this letter would have been of much importance in its investigation into the payment of $33,000 to O'Brien by the general accounting office of the budget bureau.

The committee was in recess today until next Monday. Routsong and some of the other employes may be called next week.

Senator Reed, Republican, Pennsylvania, chairman of the committee, has expressed a desire to have the committee's report and the record of the hearings ready for Congress next month.

Recommendations for several important changes in the law governing the treatment of the former service men are expected to be one outcome of the investigation.

FIREMEN KEEP BOY ALIVE FOR 15 HOURS

MIAMI, Fla.—Three squads of firemen, working in shifts for fifteen hours pumping air into his lungs, failed to save the life of John Stewart, eighteen-year-old high school athlete, who died at the city hospital here after his respiratory centre had become paralyzed.

Directed by physicians, the firemen had waged a desperate fight all through the night to keep the boy's lungs supplied with oxygen, using the Sylvester resuscitation method, and all methods and stimulants known to medical science were used by physicians in a futile attempt to save his life.

Stewart had been ill several days and an X-ray examination showed an abscess on the mastoid bone. An operation was resorted to. Later, a nurse found the boy lying unconscious, his respiration stopped. Artiments restoration was resorted to until the firemen arrived and the boy kept alive until the next morning.

Man 74 Years Old Is "Rejuvenated" In 3 Weeks Without Gland Operation

Kansas Contractor Tells of Wonderful Results Obtained in Test of New Scientific Discovery.

Thomas J. Glascock, 74, well-known Kansas contractor, declares he has virtually been made young again by the recently discovered Korex compound, which is pronounced superior to "gland treatments" as an invigorator and revitalizer.

"I feel like I did at 35," says Mr. Glascock, "and seem to be getting stronger every day. During my three weeks' use of the new discovery, pains and weaknesses of many years' standing disappeared almost magically. Today I am as vigorous and supple as I was in the prime of life. Furthermore, when I began using the compound, my memory was virtually gone and I was almost blind. Now my mind is clear and active and I can read the finest print without difficulty."

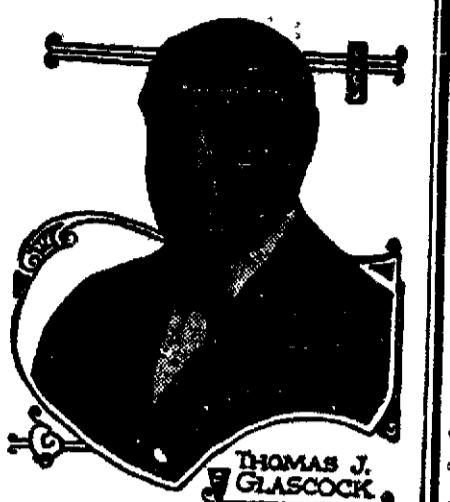

In order to find out whether the results were lasting, Mr. Glascock waited six months before reporting on his test of the discovery. On this point he says:

"Every passing day strengthens my conviction that my restoration is not only complete but permanent. I can't express the happiness this great discovery has brought to me. It has made me 'young' again."

Similar reports are being made almost daily. For instance, D. W. Wood of New Orleans, past 60 years of age, says: "The compound has brought me back to as good, healthy physical condition as I enjoyed at 35. I am apparently as supple as at 25 and my eyesight is better than for years. I would not take $5,000 for what the discovery has done for me."

The compound is a simple home treatment in tablet form, absolutely harmless, yet rated as the quickest and most powerful invigorator known. Acting directly on lower spinal nerve centers and blood vessels, it brings gratifying benefits in a few days, according to thousands who have tested it.

"It is wonderful," writes a resident of Hollister, Cal. "In less than 24 hours you can feel it does the work. It makes one feel young as a young man. I am more than happy and glad I tried it." Another Californian says: "The compound is a world's wonder. I feel like I was about 25 and here I am nearly fifty!"

The compound has been tested in all parts of the country and has won the praises of thousands who suffered from nerve weakness, lessened or depleted vigor, neurasthenia, premature age, impaired glandular activity and lack of animation and vital force. Its effects seem to be virtually the same on both young and old. Physicians say the principal active ingredient of the compound gives speedy satisfaction in obstinate cases that defy all other treatments. Elderly people pronounce the discovery a real "fountain of youth."

Realizing that thousands of enfeebled, half-alive folk may consider such news "too good to be true," the American distributor has agreed to supply a double-strength treatment of the discovery on a guaranteed trial basis to everyone in need of such a preparation. If you wish to test the compound under a money-back guarantee, write in strict confidence to the Melton Laboratories, 2753 Melton Building, Kansas City, Mo., for a two-dollar treatment of Korex compound, mailed in a plain, sealed wrapper. You may enclose two dollars, or simply send your name, without money, and pay two dollars and postage on delivery, as you prefer.

In either case, however, if you report within ten days that you are not satisfied, the laboratories will refund the purchase price upon request. These laboratories are nationally known and thoroughly reliable, so nobody need hesitate about accepting their guaranteed offer.

The compound is a simple home treatment in tablet form, absolutely harmless, yet rated as the quickest and most powerful invigorator known. Acting directly on lower spinal nerve centers and blood vessels, it brings gratifying benefits in a few days, according to thousands who have tested it.

"It is wonderful," writes a resident of Hollister, Cal. "In less than 24 hours you can feel it does the work. It makes one feel young as a young man. I am more than happy and glad I tried it." Another Californian says: "The compound is a world's wonder. I feel

The compound has been tested in all parts of the country and has won the praises of thousands who suffered from nerve weakness, lessened or depleted vigor, neurasthenia, premature age, impaired glandular activity and lack of animation and vital force. Its effects seem to be virtually the same on both young and old. Physicians say the principal active ingredient of the compound gives speedy satisfaction in obstinate cases that defy all other treatments. Elderly people pronounce the discovery a real "fountain of youth."

Realizing that thousands of enfeebled, half-alive folk may consider such news "too good to be true," the American distributor has agreed to supply a double-strength treatment of the discovery on a guaranteed trial basis to everyone in need of such a preparation. If you wish to test the compound under a money-back guarantee, write in strict confidence to the Melton Laboratories, 2753 Melton Building, Kansas City, Mo., for a two-dollar treatment of Korex compound, mailed in a plain, sealed wrapper. You may enclose two dollars, or simply send your name, without money, and pay two dollars and postage on delivery, as you prefer.

ATTORNEYS GAZE ON PLUM TREE

Will be Shock Thursday Night
by G. O. P. Committee

Who will be the lucky G. O. P. attorney to catch the plum Thursday night when the Republicans' committee meets to select the next assistant prosecuting attorney?

There are several applicants waiting under the tree, hoping to catch the prize, but there is nothing sure as to who will be named.

A deadlock over the selection is not impossible or improbable, a committee hinted Thursday.

The job pays $100 a month, but carries with it considerable political prestige. It has been vacant since the resignation of R. R. Trubey.

In view of the result of the city election it is not unlikely that Paul T. Landis, city solicitor, recommended by the committee two years ago may be brought forward once more. The previous recommendation was ignored.

Others mentioned in the race are C. W. Long, U. S. Commissioner; Melvin Light, former city solicitor; H. E. Garling, G. O. P. county chairman, and John Emans.

ARRESTED IN CHICAGO ON CHARGE OF FRAUD

CHICAGO — Harry Hayden, 24, who thru alleged fraudulent activities is said by police to have obtained more than $100,000 in the last two years, was arrested by two Chicago detectives after they had chased him from an exclusive hotel three blocks to the shores of Lake Michigan last night.

Just previous to the chase Hayden, the police declare, is known by a half dozen aliases, was seated in the dining room of the hotel with R. A. Nuestrom, a Buffalo, N. Y. real estate man, and was consummating a deal involving $50,000. Nuestrom had the check already written.

Hayden, tipped off to "beat it, the cops are here," excused himself from Nuestrom and left the hotel, the detectives falling in behind him. No charge was placed against him.

BACK FROM CANADA, GRAY SAYS ON TO ALASKA NEXT

Andrew J. Gray, county commissioner who has been hunting big game in Canada, returned home Thursday morning with two deer to his credit. Gray spent two weeks in the wilds of upper Ontario.

"There was only one herd of moose in the country and they ran out shortly after we arrived," Gray declared. "The country was burned over and game had deserted it to a large extent."

Gray declares the Canadian country cannot compete with Maine where he hunted last year. Because big game is scarce in closer regions, Gray is talking of trying Alaska next year.

In addition to her husband, Mrs. Tabler is survived by her parents and two sisters residing in Missouri. Funeral services will probably be held Saturday at the Williams & Davis Mortuary. Interment in Woodlawn.

RUSSIA SHOWS HER CASH TO WORLD

Agents of Various Countries Inspect Moscow's Money

D. K. OF SYSTEM IS SOUGHT

Object is to Prove Currency Has Proper Backing

CLARIBEL NIXON, 18, ILL EIGHT MONTHS, IS DEAD

WASHINGTON—(United Press)—Imagine, if you can, Secretary of the Treasury Mellon calling the diplomatic corps here into the Treasury Department some quiet afternoon to count the vaults and assure themselves that the nation's paper money is backed up by the proper amount of metallic reserves—not just for the fun of it, but so that they will go back to their offices and cable their home governments that American money is all right!

It will hardly be done here yet, but a similar performance has just occurred at one of the world's great capitals—Moscow.

According to an account which has just reached here all the diplomatic representatives accredited to Russia, thirty in number, went to the State Bank of the Soviets at Moscow and performed such an inspection.

They first went into the rooms where the new Soviet bill, the "chervonetz," were being numbered and signed. The "chervonetz" are another step in the progress of the Soviets back up the hill. This new unit of money, by virtue of the sincerity of the Soviet in maintaining the proper reserves behind the notes in circulation, sells at a premium above the pound sterling and on a parity with the dollar, according to the reports reaching here.

The diplomatic party, according to the accounts received in Washington, after being duly impressed by the efficient manner in which the preparation of the bills for circulation was made, passed on to the vaults. The account continued:

FULL OF REAL MONEY

The enormous iron-vaulted hall was filled almost man-high with cases, bags and ingots of precious metals. In the cases there were deposited Russian and foreign gold coins and bars. Every case bore an inscription showing what amount of chervonetz is guaranteed by its contents.

One of the cases that had been selected by the diplomats was opened and its contents checked up according to the description attached to the case. It contained gold bars. All the vaults occupy four floors and contain 98 million gold rubles serving as a guarantee.

From the vaults the party went to the accounting and weighing room. One of the bags taken from the vault was opened and its contents of 1,000 Austrian gold coins at 20 crowns each were counted in a simplified way by placing them on a measured square section of the table.

"After that the weight of the bars taken from the selected case was ascertained on a very accurate scale.

"They returned to the main building where, in a room containing safes, they examined the foreign bank notes and gold uphile which had not yet been placed in the vaults for examination. In the first there were English and American bank notes for the amount of $5,000,000 gold rubles, while in the other there were gold bars and bags containing Russian gold rubles of the gold model.

"One bag containing two thousand 15-ruble "imperials" was opened and examined.

CLARIBEL NIXON, 18, ILL EIGHT MONTHS, IS DEAD

Claribel Nixon, 18, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Nixon, of 1109 W. Northcut, died early Wednesday morning at the home of her parents. Death was due to a complication of diseases following an illness of eight months.

She was born in Findlay, Feb. 18, 1905, and besides the house of deputies, 15 are women, while among the 150 members of the senate there are three women.

REFORMS GAINED BY WOMEN

Work in Czechoslovakia Wins Praise of Government

PRAGUE—(Associated Press)—After three years' trial of equal rights for both sexes in Czechoslovakia, a report of the constitutional committee says the government is satisfied with the part taken by women and that they are responsible for most of the constructive and social legislation of the country during the period.

At the time the constitution was adopted three years ago the women of the country possessed no suffrage rights, nor had they ever possessed any under Austrian rule. Now they are allowed full right of suffrage and to hold office, as well as seats in the house of deputies and the senate.

Out of the 300 members of the house of deputies, 15 are women, while among the 150 members of the senate there are three women.

The women members have very definitely influenced the making of new laws. For instance, they have successfully proposed measures for the complete reorganization and the conversion into state institutions of the women's technical and industrial schools and the schools of domestic economy.

They have established in all the important towns children's welfare centers and now are engaged on the task of regulating the legal position and general advancement of the women teachers in the national schools.

The activity of Czechoslovak women is not confined to parliamentary career. The economic council, constituted after the armistice to cope with the food shortage, was originated by women, and today such councils exist all over the country under the charge of women, controlling the food supplies and general domestic conditions.

LEAVE YOU FOREVER

Mr. James H. Allen suffered for years with rheumatism. Many times this terrible disease left him helpless and unable to work.

He finally decided, after years of ceaseless study, that no one can be free from rheumatism until the accumulated impurities, commonly called uric acid deposits, were dissolved in the joints and muscles and expelled from the body.

With this idea in mind he consulted physicians, made experiments and finally compounded a preparation that quickly and completely banished every sign and symptom of rheumatism from his system.

He freely gave it, with what might be called marvelous success. After years of urging he decided to let sufferers everywhere know about his discovery through the newspapers. He has therefore instructed druggists everywhere to dispense Allen's Remedy with the understanding that he will freely return the purchase money on the first pint bought to all who state they received no benefit. Water and Land Rights Barred by Supreme Court Edict

ARTICLE 27 INTERPRETED

Ministry of Foreign Relations Given Strong Powers

MEXICO CITY — (Associated Press) — Land and water rights in Mexico of foreigners are vitally affected by a recent supreme court decision interpreting the famous Article 27 of the Mexican constitution of 1917, which played an important part in last summer's pro-recognizance conference.

The decision, altho it does not touch upon that part of Article 27 which nationalizes sub-soil petroleum rights, sets forth, broadly speaking, the principle that altho foreigners may comply fully with the provisions of the law affecting the acquisition of land and water rights in Mexico, it is within the power of the ministry of foreign relations to refuse to sanction their titles if such refusal is deemed to be in the national interest.

MINISTRY HAS POWER

It also places upon that ministry the immense responsibility of regulating in the interest of the republic the development by foreign capital of the immense sources of national wealth comprised within the term land and water rights, and in a measure regulating the investment of foreign capital in Mexico.

The court's finding, regarded as being of superlative importance to foreign interests in Mexico, especially since it is accepted as a possible indication of the bench's attitude toward foreign oil rights, came as a result of an appeal by the Gold and Silver Mining Co., Ltd., of Durango, against acts of the ministry of foreign relations alleged to be in violation of Articles 14 and 27, Fraction 1, of the constitution.

The company declared that in 1916 while the Bacis river was under the jurisdiction of the Durango government, it secured a concession to use the waters of the river in operating a power plant, and when the Bacis passed under federal jurisdiction it complied with all legal requirements to have the concession approved by the federal government. This included the waiver of the company's right to appeal to the United States government for protection of its interests and an agreement to consider itself a Mexican corporation insofar as the water power concession was concerned.

WHEN COURT SHEDS

When the foreign office refused to sanction the concession appeal was had to the Supreme Court. The court held, in effect, that:

Mexican citizens, by birth or naturalization, have the "right" to acquire land and water rights; but foreigners under the court's interpretation of the state of mind which dominated the commitment embodied in Article 27, have not this "right," even though they comply with every legal requirement, since the article authorizes the state, thru the foreign office, to decide whether it is to the public interest to sanction such land and water rights as may be petitioned by foreigners and to sanction such rights, not because of any mandatory feature of the article, but as a "facial act of favor or grace."

Fight With Rats Brings Citation For Ship's Crew

WILMINGTON, N. C. — Four members of the crew of the Coast Guard cutter Modoc have been officially commended for bravery at sea. The four, three petty officers and a seaman, remained aboard a water-logged schooner while the vessel was being towed into port, to see that she did not sink while in tow. The day after the party went aboard the ship a severe storm made their situation precarious. They were unable to escape to the cutter during the gale.

When the storm had abated the men found themselves surrounded by rats that had been driven on deck by the rising water in the hold. The rodents were vicious from hunger. They raided the men's food. The sailors were afraid to sleep because of the danger of being attacked by the rats. The men were exhausted and bore signs of fight with the rats when the cutter and tow reached Charleston, where the schooner was docked.

False Modesty Wrecks Health.

THE young lady just assuming the responsibilities of a woman is very apt to be self-conscious of her physical functions, and in consequence neglect them. There is no time, however, when it is more important for her to look after them. Chief among her trouble is constipation, and her suffering will be serious when she gets older if she does not regulate her bowels now. Mrs. Mary Kellar of 132 Benton St., Sisterville, W. Va., was perplexed about her daughter until her own druggist told her they used Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Peppermint at his house, and she did likewise. Miss Irene Maziarska of 90 Peter St., Buffalo, N. Safe for Young and Old

Fashion News

A GREAT CROWD of excited spectators stormed the awninged passageway before old Grace Church. It is the day and the time when one of America's wealthiest sons is to be married—on November first at half past three. W. H. Vanderbilt, the heir of Alfred Gwynne Vanderbilt, marries Emily Davies, the daughter of his father's oldest friend.

Outside the church a pushing mob of eager people held back by lines of police. Inside the church the flickering rays of lighted tapers and the subdued glow from stained glass windows fall on the nave that is filling gradually with fashionably and beautifully gowned guests.

The wedding is simple in contrast to the elaborate ceremony when Cathleen Vanderbilt married Howard Cushing last June. Simplicity and quiet elegance characterize this ceremony, both in its appointments and in its costumes. The guests as well as the bridal party are dressed with that simplicity that makes right fashion.

THE BRIDE WEARS a straight gown of white satin, and a veil of rose point lace. A string of magnificent pearls, the gift of the groom, and a shower of lilies of the valley complete the setting for her slim blond loveliness.

THE BRIDESMAIDS' COSTUMES carry out this note of smart simplicity even further. Orchid chiffon makes the gowns and the hats. Hembands of chinchilla give these dresses that touch that makes them new. The hats also are trimmed with the fur as are many of the smartest hats of the season.

The bridesmaids' gifts are bracelets of coral and white enamel with banal monogram charms bearing the Vanderbilt crest in diamonds. These bracelets illustrate three fashion points. The vogue for bracelets continues as a new jewelry note, and the monogram charm idea that is newest and most important of all.

AMONG THE MRS. The older women wear luxurious fur wraps. The brown tones in mink, ermine and sable predominate. The younger women more often choose cloth coats, fur-trimmed.

Lady Cheylemore, an aunt of the bridegroom, wears a sable wrap. Miss Elsie Vanderbilt, the young maid, wears a black cloth coat with the collar of ermine that has come to be an important fashion.

THE GROOM'S COSTUME are lavishly fur-trimmed. Fur hembands and borders are used on most of them. A few are embroidered all over and many have embroidery above the fur hem-band and fur cuffs.

HATS ARE SMALL for the most part, even though this is late afternoon. Lace veiling, drooping feathers and bows are the most popular touch of richness, appropriate for a formal occasion. Many of these small hats are of satin. Satin toques have drooping feathers and satin cloches are trimmed with lace veils and jeweled ornaments.

WHEN THE BRIDE ARRIVES the church will wear a wrap of ermine lined with sable, velvet, or fur. The guard of motorcycle police precedes the bridal motor. The street is cleared just as if some visiting ruler were to make a triumphal passage, for this young pair are among the monarchs of America's aristocracy of wealth.

THE ELECTION A CLEAN CUT MANDATE

TUESDAY'S election can be accepted in only one light—that of a convincing mandate from the people concerning two principal branches of our community life, city government and public schools.

It was an "anti" victory, clear, concise, a victory which expressed louder than words the sentiment of the majority concerning the administration in the two principal branches of our government.

As to the city commission, the two new members who made their campaign on a platform of economy and depositing the city manager and chief of police will have ample opportunity to practice the first mentioned plank to the fullest extent. The three mill levy failed of passage, which means that the operating fund as arranged by the present administration will be more than $167,000 short.

This fact makes apparent the need of economy in operation. It will give the new members a better chance to show their ability at running the city on an income declared to be inadequate. If they had been given the three mill levy, which the present administration said would be necessary, they would not have been crowded so desperately toward economy.

The present cry against the present form of government since the employment of City Manager Bingham has been his $8,000 salary. If the new commissioners are able to frame a deal whereby they will be able to depose Bingham after the first of the year and install a local man in his place, it would be reasonable to expect that they will, following their pledge of economy, cut the salary commensurate with the low finances of the city.

If the $8,000 paid to Bingham has been too high, it certainly will be too high after the first of the year when the present operating fund will have to be sliced approximately in half. This should be a tip to the new commissioners.

We do not believe it is humanly possible to operate the city on the income which will be available next year. There is no relief in sight, however, and the only thing to be expected is a curtailment in service. Realizing this, The News favored the three mill levy to be used for operation, no matter who was elected as commissioners and no matter what changes were made in the administrative force.

In the matter of schools, it is not likely that a shake-up will take place immediately. The three board of education members elected Tuesday and who will have control of the schools after they take their seats soon after the first of the year, have indicated that they will not seek to make a change in the administration until after the expiration of Superintendent Collins' term, more than a year hence. They are pledged, however, to vote against the re-employment of Collins and have declared that there will be no deviation from their pledges.

When the shake-up comes, it is likely to be far reaching. It is certain to affect more than the superintendent alone. How extensive it will be can be only conjecture at this time and the uncertainty that will obtain between now and that time can be expected to have more or less effect on the schools.

On the whole, Tuesday's election will make for the most widespread upheaval in Lima seen in recent years. The effects will be felt for some time to come inasmuch as the men who will be at the helm are pledged to directly opposite courses in many respects to those followed by the men they will succeed.

BE GOOD NATURED, LIVE LONG

CLAIMING she is 113, Mrs. Pauline Urdang says this is a pretty good old world—the she lives in a home for the aged. Her recipe for a long life is to be good-natured. That undoubtedly would prolong our lives by its soothing effect on the nervous system. Also, it's the only way to make life really worth living. The chief victim of bad temper is its owner.

PROTECT THE FORESTS

A TIMBER famine threatens us. Partly because we don't plant as much as we cut down to use. But the greatest single factor heading us toward the timber famine is the forest fire. Kelleter, one of Uncle Sam's experts, says forest fires in our country each year destroy or damage enough timber to build five-room houses enough for the entire population of San Francisco. Remember this when you light camp fires or smoke cigarette, pipe or cigar in the woods.

PREVENTION OF PILES

As I took occasion to say in our last conference about varicose veins, it is my healthful practice to refrain from publishing the symptoms, for I have a suspicion that too many people are already equipped with too many symptoms and it is no part of a health teacher's work to add to the popular burden.

Still and all, in order to make my stuff here really interesting as well as amusing, I've got to flirt with the symptoms a little, not that I mean to present the reader with the complete makings of a case, but merely to keep him going along with us in the hope that I may unwittingly tell something some time that is good for something. One has got to sort of dangle some symptoms before the reader's eyes now and then to keep that hopeful expectation.

In the quiescent interval between "attacks" of piles, a sensation of fullness and distension is commonly felt by the subject, as tho from a foreign body or retained fecal mass. This often leads to ill advised self dosing with cathartics or to the use of enemas, both of which tend to increase the congestion of the affected veins and hence to aggravate the trouble. One at all subject to piles can scarcely do himself a greater injury than to take regularly or frequently a laxative tablet or "liver pill" containing aloes or similar purgative ingredients. Indeed, the habitual use of such physics must be reckoned a common contributing cause of piles.

The sense of fullness or discomfort itself, and the irritation produced by the constant resort to

"Report of Hentzau" Has All-Star Cast

"Report of Hentzau," which opens Monday at the Sigma theatre, is hailed as a "brilliant" comedy and moments of real suspense. The story is itself in a thrill-a-minute, but the screen adaptation does not have to be stretched at any time as the wonderful portrayal of the principals coupled with the faultless direction of Victor Heerman, leaves nothing to be desired from a thrill standpoint. It is guaranteed to keep even the most blasé on the edge of their seats every foot of film.

One of the finest casts ever assembled or any single production will be seen in "Report of Hentzau."

"Main Street" Open Friday at Lyric

An announcement of the Lyric theatre management that "Main Street," a screen adaptation of Sinclair Lewis' novel describing the small town, will be shown for an entire week beginning Friday, will be hailed by all motion picture enthusiasts as an event out of the ordinary run of things.

Florence Vidor and Monte Blue have the featured parts, the former as Carol Kennicott, the young girl tiring with new ideas and the desire to make Gopher Prairie adopt them, and the latter as Dr. Kennicott her husband. The picture is said to follow the book with fidelity.

Briefly, the story centers about Carol, about whom tongues begin to wag in connection with her friendship with Erik Valborg, a young dreamer, the only person in the town sympathizing with Carol. She goes her way mindless of the gossip, trying to make the town advanced and new-fashioned.

Old Valborg, Erik's father, resents the intimacy between his son and

Home-made Remedy
Stops Coughs Quickly

The best cough medicine you ever took—coughs stopped in a jiffy—quickly made—saves about 50¢.

You might be surprised to know that the best thing you can use for a severe cough is a remedy which is easily prepared at home in just a few moments. It's cheap, but for prompt results it beats anything else you ever tried. Usually stops the ordinary cough or chest cold in 24 hours. Tastes pleasant, too—children like it—and it is pure and good.

Four 2½ ounces of Pinex in a pint bottle; then fill it up with plain granulated sugar syrup. Or use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar if you desire. Thus you make a full-strength supply—but costing no more than a small bottle of ready-made cough syrup.

Pinex is a highly concentrated cough syrup. Norway pine extract, famous for its healing effect on the membranes.

To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for "Pinex" or "Pinex" with directions and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

ORCHESTRA IS WELCOMED IN CONCERT

THE program of the Cleveland Symphony Orchestra, under the leadership of its distinguished conductor, Nikolai Sokoloff, delighted the 1,500 music lovers that gathered at Memorial Hall, Wednesday evening. The orchestra appeared under the auspices of the Women's Music Club of the city, of which Mrs. Charles Black is the president.

It was a most appreciative audience that heard last evening's program, in which there was a preponderance of modern music. The applause was immense after each number and the manner in which the audience remained seated after the playing of the last encore, was an excellent tribute to the work of the great conductor and his eighty musicians.

As an opening number, the symphony played the overture from "The Roman Carnival" by Berlioz, which was followed by "Dance of the Happy Spirits" from Orpheus and Eurydice by Gluck, "Molly on the Shore," by Granger, was rendered in a charming manner and this was followed by Dvorak's "Largo" from Symphony No. 5 and "From the New World." As an encore, the orchestra played "Hungarian Dance" by Brahms.

The overture from Tchaikovsky's "Romeo and Juliet," which opened the second half of the program, was greatly enjoyed. The next number was Walther's Prize Song from "The Mastersinger of Nuremberg" by Wagner with a violin solo by Arthur Beckwith. Mr. Beckwith's solo was enthusiastically received and as an encore, "Meditation" from Thais by Massenet was played. The final numbers on the program were two Slavonic dances by Dvorak. The last encore was "The Sleeping Beauty Waltz" by Tchaikovsky.

The program presented in the afternoon, under the direction of Arthur Shepherd, for the school children of the city was equally delightful. The children enjoyed it and were charmed with the Pantomime Pictures from the symphonic suite, "Alice in Wonderland" by Stillman Kelley. The Women's Music Club was responsible for making it possible for the children to hear this symphony and they feel that no small part of the success of the recital was due to the co-operation given by the city schools.

SUSIE SMART'S ADVICE

Dear Susie Smart: I WANT to write a letter to Elinor Smart. Could you give me her address? You may think this a odd question but I am depending on your answer to help me with a problem. Of course different people have different ideas, but I mean, as a rule, which is the more favored? If it is not asking too much will you tell me which one you advise? Do you believe in the saying that two different colored haired people get along better than two of the same type? Can true love ever be forgotten or can time ever heal the wound? I mean does it go on the rest of your days or can one by will power, learn to love another? I know, of course, that you are not super-human, nor I am, but I expect you to answer questions that way but couldn't please have your honest, sincere opinion? Do you ever realize how much comfort a broken heart can get out of—shall we say, just in the same situation that answers questions in a newspaper?

K-K-K-K-Katy K-K-K-ramer. ELINOR GLYN'S home is in Hollywood, but I don't know her street number. However, I feel sure if you send a letter addressed to her, care of her publishers, the J. B. Lippincott Co., Washington Square Press, Philadelphia, they will forward the letter to her. As long as you are writing friend Elinor, anyway, why don't you ask her the question you have asked me? She is so much better versed in the love of love that I, that she can answer your questions to your entire satisfaction, I feel sure.

You being one of the emotional type (I gather that from your letter) perhaps you would be interested in Mrs. Glyn's latest book, "The Philosophy of Love"?

Dear Miss Smart: I am planning a birthday surprise on my husband's and wonder if I could suggest some games suitable for young people, married and single, whose ages range from 20 to 32. I am planning to serve lunch to midnight. I don't know just what amusements to plan.

Without knowing the tastes of your guests it would be difficult for me to suggest diversions which would be certain to entertain them. If for any reason you do not care to have cards or dancing, you can secure many suggestions for games and stunts by consulting the books on games and entertainments which you will find in the public library. And do not forget that most persons enjoy the old-fashioned games with which they have long been familiar.

Dear Miss Smart: Will you please suggest some present I could give to the wife of my best friend? She is a widow and I have never met her. She sent me a beautiful handmade apron last year and I feel that I ought to give her something. She has just about everything and does her own sewing well, so it's pretty hard to decide what to give her. I was thinking of giving her a box of home-made candy. Would this be all right?

IN DOUBT.

A Christmas gift from your employer would imply no obligation of a return gift and you may regard a gift from his wife in the same light. It is not at all likely that she expects or wishes any return for her present to you. If you feel that you cannot be content without making some return, then a box of home-made candy would be as appropriate as anything you could

"THE FOOL"

BY CHARLES POLLACK

“THE FOOL”

“I AM A FOOL TODAY,” said Daniel, in his usual slow, heavy drawl. Gilchrist, master of the house, had come for his money. Daniel, from the Quaker Church of his country in New York, had come to the quiet town of Goodkind, the prettiest old fashioned town in which Gilchrist had been born. The miners in the mountains of Pennsylvania, to which Daniel had come, had given him the management of business in which to start.

“Goodkind is established by Gilchrist, and serves as a refuge for the unfortunate with debts for the poor maintained at a minimum cost. Goodkind calls at the hotel every day.”

“GO ON WITH THE STORY.”

“That's what I wanted to say. You're in need of money and my father—”

“Your father understood you well enough to leave you only an income. I suddenly turned over some money to you and you threw away $10,000. You could have had a big salary and you threw that away. You're an utter damned waster—if you're worse.”

“What do you mean—worse?” Daniel asked with a frown.

“You'll find out what I mean. You've had my son's wife down here, haven't you?”

“Once or twice.”

“Or three times—or a dozen. He has.”

“I've asked her not to come again.” “And he's asked her—but she comes when she likes. She's in love with you—God knows what women are in your kind of a man. There was Pearl, Hennig—”

“Please!” Gilchrist lifted a hand in protest.

“Oh, my son told me,” continued Goodkind. “And I hear—in the neighborhood—that you're worse than that running in here. Women on the streets!”

“Not many,” said Daniel calmly.

“They're welcome but they don't come.”

“Well, that's your business. And your neighbors get sick of having a resort of this kind in their midst, and drive you out, that's your business too. But my son's wife—”

“Is her business,” Daniel interrupted.

“And his,” came back Goodkind. “Only Jerry's in no condition to settle the matter. He's broken down from worry and overwork and you're partly responsible. That puts it up to me. This is a final warning. If you see Clara again I'll act. That's all. Good night.” He picked up his hat.

“Oh, Mr. Goodkind,” Daniel woke, as if from a reverie. “How about the money?”

“You've had what's coming to you.”

“But that's nothing. I pay half that for these houses and I've gone in debt fitting them up.”

“With baths and tennis courts?”

“People must have baths.”

“These dirty immigrants,” Goodkind stormed.

“The dirtier they are, the more they need them,” Gilchrist smiled. “I want to show them how to live—and show other people that you don't have to have a pig-pen to make a profit.”

“Are you making a profit?” asked Goodkind scornfully.

“Enormous,” answered Gilchrist enthusiastically. “And, to go on, I've got to have $22,000.”

“Oh, is that all!” scoffed the master. “You want $22,000 to go to making a fool of yourself. Well, you won't get it.”

“Not even as an advance” pleaded Daniel.

“Not a penny.”

“Don't drive me to—” Gilchrist paused.

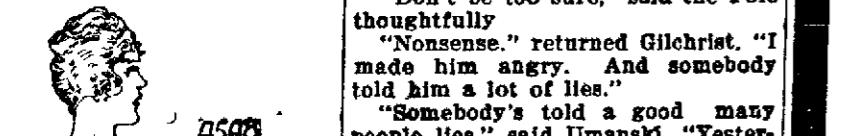

“To what?”

“To ask for an accounting,” said Daniel rather at a loss.

Goodkind stared at him in amazement.

“To ask for what?” he thundered. “You listen to me. I've stood all I'm going to stand. You've run me out of myself—and me—and the neighborhood.”

Wonderful Results from Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Beloit, Wis.—“My female trouble was brought on by overwork. I had worked in stores and had to do heavier work than my strength could stand, and had to be on my feet most of the time. Finally I had to give up this work entirely and stay at home. Doctor's medicine didn't give me much relief, and my mother wanted me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I took a couple of bottles of it and thought it didn't help me as much as it should, so I gave it up to try something else. Nothing I took helped me much, so I finally decided to give the Vegetable Compound another trial and to take enough of it to make sure it would help me. I have taken it over a year now and it has brought wonderful results. I have gained from 90 to 110 pounds and am keeping house now. My friends all notice the change in my health. I will be glad to answer all letters that women write to me about the Vegetable Compound.”—Mrs. W. E. Monroe, 1515 Park Ave., Beloit, Wis.

As A Matter of Fact

By HARRY BRADBURY

There is to a certain extent an irony connected with the defeat of Jake Schaefer, II, by Willie Hoppe, in the billiard tournament just closed, played at the Pennsylvania hotel in New York. Hoppe beat Young Jake, and thus for a second time kept him out of the championship at the 18.2 style of game. It is perhaps proper to say that this young player inherited the skill of his illustrious father, and it is also proper to say that Schaefer I, was the outstanding example of all billiard players, past or present. "Like father like son," may be a true saw, but without malice aforethought, young Jake will hardly equal the wonderful ability of his father. There are many who know Jake's nature. Jake Schaefer founded the school of billiards as we know it, and at the same time, so proficient did he become, that the rules were constantly being changed to make the game more difficult for Jake.

Bill Brennan has returned to the run and is again ready to be knocked dizzy by some of the game's worst fighters.

HOPPE A WONDER AT THE GAME

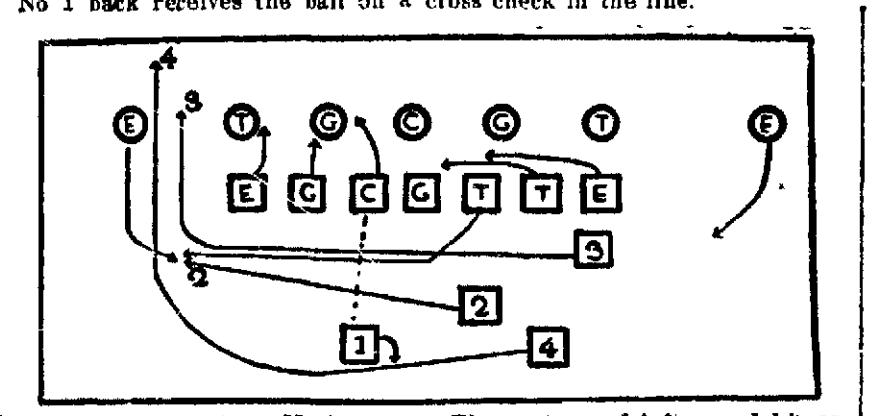

There is a wonderful consistency in Hoppe's game. On Feb. 23, 1914, at the Globe theatre, Chicago, on a challenge from George Sutton, at the 18.2 game 1500 points: 500 points each night, he was beaten on the first match by 500 to 459, but on the second night, he ran 541 to Sutton's 74. Hoppe's runs were 177, 250-28-86. On the third night he made 500, averaging 50. Hoppe's grand average for the 1,500 points was 252, while his greatest average for one night, was 135.4. But like all other games where the championship is at stake, it is might ty hard. The result of the last tournament left Welker Cochran, Hank Getche's protege tied. Here is a young fellow, whose game has constantly been increasing in effectiveness, and there is no telling how the match will finish. Champions of the billiard world are necessarily wonders at the game. Cochran is young, enthusiastic, couple this with his skill and it makes a combination that may prove superior to all of Hoppe's experience, masterly skill and finesse, for it must be remembered that the champion has played a long time and champions cannot hold out forever.

Wisconsin May Not Be Able To Repair Damage Thru Loss Of Big Tackle

CHICAGO — (Associated Press) — The disqualification of E. C. Gerber, big tackle on the University of Wisconsin eleven, overshadows other news from Western Conference training camp Thursday. Doubt is expressed whether the Badgers will be able to repair the hole left in their line by Gerber's ineligibility, before the all-important game with Illinois Saturday.

Hergo had his right leg broken and one of Graybill's vertebrae thought to be fractured. Gerber and Madorsky will probably replace them for the remaining games.

Kerschner's loss to the team will be an awful blow to the chances of winning the three games remaining on the schedule. It was because of his inability to play against Akron that the team lost. Hergo, the big right guard, had begun to play a wonderful game when he was injured Saturday. He was the makings of a star and was beginning to show himself as such. Graybill is a dependable lineman and his loss also will be keenly felt.

Cincinnati, with a 6-0 win over Ohio last Saturday, rooms an formidable opponent for the Bears.

At least one Northern rooster will be at Cincinnati to cheer on the Norsemen. That is Dr. A. E. Smith, president of the University, who declared that he would be there rooting for Northern.

Central Hi To Play Piqua Saturday

Raised to a fever pitch of enthusiasm, Central's football eleven will take on the strong Piqua team at College Field Saturday.

The loss of the first game of the season to the fast Springfield gang the locals are running around with the proverbial blood in their eyes and will attempt to make a comeback by knocking off the Piqua boys.

At least one Northern rooster will be at Cincinnati to cheer on the Norsemen. That is Dr. A. E. Smith, president of the University, who declared that he would be there rooting for Northern.

PARACHIAL SCHOOL SEASON BEGINS NOVEMBER 30

The St. Rose and St. John's basketball teams will get together at St. Rose auditorium, Nov. 30. This will in all likelihood be the opening of the basketball season, and stands out distinct as the first game ever played between these two rival teams. The game marks the opening of St. Rose season.

RUMMAGE SALE! FRIDAY AND SATURDAY. COURT HOUSE MIS- SIONARY UNION.

The STANDARD SINCE 1885

What Every Woman Knows

THE woman buys more MEN'S UNION SUITS than all the men in the world.

She buys with a shrewd eye. No flimsy fabrics, no slip-shod workmanship, can pass her ready tests.

But it's the deep-down values, the built-in virtues, that have made Reis Lavender Label Union Suits "The Standard Since 1885".

Only experience has taught her that those flat, flexible seams don't rip—

—that Reis Union Suits wear longer because they're knit to fit at the points of hardest wear.

—that the buttons are anchored on to stay.

MUTT AND JEFF—JEFF'S SO INNOCENT HE FALLS FOR ANYTHING—

BRINGING UP FATHER—

By McMANUS

SHORT SHAVINGS

Modern women have been vindicated at least. In Chicago, a judge ruled that a woman who bobbed her hair was lady, all protests by the woman's husband to the contrary.

Rumors that the coffin of Herod's kin that has been found in Palestine, is to be brought to Lima are probably true. There are a few dead ones around these parts that could use it, however, if it came.

Suffrage is doing its deadly work. A Toledo woman saw a boxing match and then panned it saying, "There wasn't enough blood spilled around the ring."

Downstate man puts his head on railroad track in suicide attempt. Lima has a nice morgue where such persons can be treated. They should call on Ex-Judge Jackson for full information.

Norwalk boy has a bulldog with one eye that shines brown in the day and green at night and the other light blue by day and bright red by night. We might use the dog's eyes at night on cruisers plying up and down the Ottawa river.
